A few words about ANDERSON, HURWITZ & HARWARD:
Ethical Experienced Knowledgeable Hard-Working Caring

In 1992, three guys began the study of law at ASU; they became friends and grew to respect & trust one another. They decided to forge their own path in their legal careers, shunning the high-rise firms and taking the risks involved with hanging their own shingle.

The firm of AHH opened 10 years ago. We remain the same three guys. We have represented hundreds of clients, and we continue in our commitment to treat our clients with respect and to achieve the best results for them. Our focus is on vehicular accidents, personal injury cases and small business matters, such as contracts and corporations.

Whatever our clients' legal needs, we help them directly or guide them to others who can. We are not afraid to take on the wealthy and powerful, nor do we hesitate to fight big issues. We have argued two cases to the Arizona Supreme Court and have helped change the law in Arizona to protect individual's rights. AHH stands proud of its record, and we wish to thank all of our clients who've supported us.
